

2/3 Sunday Curriculum

Mitzvah Theme: Mazon UMalbish Arumim (feeding and clothing the poor)

Hebrew

Reading	*Writing (optional)	Vocabulary (enrichment)
Decoding small words as their level dictates	Their Names, short words	Colors, animals. More movement related words (i.e, larutz, la'amod, lashevet), pronouns

Torah

Learn	Obtain	Activity
Weekly Parshah	A weekly rhythm of Torah study An ability for them to relate to the events Jewish identity Parent/child relationships Mitzvot in Weekly Parsha Our relationship to animals	Workbook activities, reinforcing key words, phrases, and themes Role playing parent/child relationships Plays
Study of stories associated with class Mitvah: Mazon U-malbish Arumim (feeding and clothing the poor)	Relating this value into what they do at home Knowledge of how Brachot in Birchot Hashachar relate to this mitzvah	Volunteer at NE Regional Food Bank Raise funds and/or collect food and clothing to send to victims of hurricanes and other storms Help evacuees and refugees in Albany by raising money, collecting clothes and food and/or making a meal for them

Holidays

Learn	Obtain	Activity
Rituals, mitzvot, and practices related to the chagim (holidays) History of prayer observance	The ability to recite prayers and blessings Why we celebrate the various holidays	Hands on crafts and projects, skits/plays, discussions, cooking

Synagogue Study

Students will tour the 3 different synagogues and learn about different ritual items thereby giving them comfort and familiarity with the layout and function of the sanctuaries.

Prayer

(Each child will learn prayers at their own pace with the goal of mastery. Please your child's individual prayer chart)

Ma Tovu, Sh'ma, Shabbat Blessings: Kiddush, Candles, Ha'motzi; Ma Nishtana, V'ahavta, Birchot Hashachar, Food blessings

Resources

A Child's Bible/Gamebook, The Great Israel Scavenger Hunt, The Jewish Holiday Treasure Trail, The New Siddur Program, I Can Celebrate Jewish Holidays, Sifatai Tiftach (Torah Aura), Shalom Ivrit, Volume 1, Kid's Mensch Handbook, Primer, My Weekly Sidrah